QUIZ

Autism Audits: They Might Start in the Parking Lot and End with the Toilets www.planningforautism.com

1. What is the main goal of an autism audit?
   a. Figure out where a sensory haven can be placed
   b. Make the space as accommodating as possible for neurodiverse individuals
   c. Determine how much room there is in a space for neurodiverse individuals
   d. Collaborate and network with community partners

2. Which individuals will provide you with the most authentic feedback on audits?
   a. Occupational therapists
   b. Special education teachers
   c. Speech language pathologists
   d. Autistic individuals

3. Which areas of a community venue should an audit access?
   a. Inside the building
   b. Restrooms
   c. Parking lots
   d. All of the above

4. It's important to assess social, communication, and _____ factors in the environment.
   a. Sensory
   b. Vestibular
   c. Crowding
   d. Heat

5. If a Google form is used to create a survey for an autism audit, you should make the statements... a. Biased
   b. Subjective
   c. Neutral
   d. Long and wordy

6. Which of the following would be categorized as a sensory factor in the environment?.
   a. Lighting
   b. Safety
   c. Layout of the building
   d. Availability of people to help

7. Which is an area of a community venue that would not be beneficial in including in the autism audit?
    a. Break room
    b. The navigation route to get there
    c. Elevator
    d. Hallways

8. Audits can include all of the following information except…
    a. Temperature
    b. Signage for restrooms
    c. Space to move
    d. Price of products or food

9. Why would a report for autistic individuals be written?
    a. Supply fidgets to them
    b. Can help them prepare to attend a venue
    c. To convince them not to attend a venue
    d. To tell them they need to bring headphones everywhere

10. What should be included in a report for community venues?
    a. Social, communication, and sensory factors that are well managed b. Factors that are not modifiable but people should still be aware of
    c. Possible recommendations
    d. All of the above

Answer Key
1. b
2. d
3. d
4. a
5. c
6. a
7. b
8. d
9. b
10. d