

QUIZ

Working Together to Welcome Autistic People

www.planningforautism.com

1. What has the trend been moving towards when referring to individuals with autism spectrum disorder?
 - a. It is a medical complication
 - b. It is something bad
 - c. It is a difference to be celebrated
 - d. It is no longer a disorder

2. Autism is usually defined as having differences in social and communication skills and...
 - a. Differences in opinions
 - b. Differing perceptions of the senses around us
 - c. Differing perceptions in reality
 - d. Differing perceptions in taste

3. How can we help autistic individuals have a better experience in the community?
 - a. Create autism-friendly supports
 - b. We can't help them
 - c. Avoid using pictures and signs
 - d. Encourage their parents to be with them

4. All of the following are ways for community venues to put plans in place for autistic people except?
 - a. Educating staff and volunteers
 - b. Mapping an autism-friendly route
 - c. Using signage with graphics, photos, and clear words
 - d. Lacking in organization of the environment

5. What support can be put in place for autistic individuals during a visit?
 - a. The less signs the better
 - b. Create a temporary or permanent sensory haven
 - c. Tell employees not to talk to anyone
 - d. Make the environment extra loud

6. What can be done to learn from visitors and see the need for improvement?
 - a. Change everything at the venue to make it more autism friendly
 - b. Design ways to collect visitor feedback
 - c. Guess what visitors are thinking

7. How might an autistic individual communicate if they don't use words?
 - a. Images
 - b. Braille
 - c. Gibberish
 - d. Acting it out

8. What does ASD stand for?
 - a. Atrial Septal Defect
 - b. Autism Solutions Deficit
 - c. Autism Spectrum Disorder
 - d. Applied Structural Disorder

9. Even after the visit, all of the following are ways to learn from visitors except..
 - a. Using visitor feedback to develop future events
 - b. Writing visit summaries of successes and needs for improvement, and
 - c. Writing grant applications seeking funding for future plans
 - d. Following people outside to get their address and receive feedback

10. When planning for autism, what is something to avoid during the process?
 - a. Using resources found by only one person
 - b. Hearing multiple points of view
 - c. Working as a team
 - d. Being willing to discard old ways of thinking and invent new ones

Answer Key

1. c
2. b
3. a
4. d
5. b
6. b
7. a
8. c
9. d
10. a